CLERK'S OFFICE 03-CR-10367 MEL2004 JUN 22 P 12:19
EX PARTEMS. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

Now comes defendant and hereby requests that this Honorable Court provide defendant with funds for an independent psychiatric evaluation to determine defendant's criminal responsibility (sanity) at the time he allegedly committed the crime with which he has been charged.

As reason therefor, defendant states that he is indigent and that he is considering an insanity defense. (Supporting affidavit hereby incorporated.)

Respectfully submitted,

EX PARTE 2004 JUN 22 PM 12:19 WITHDRAW

NOTICE OF INSANITY DEFENSE,
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.
WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Now comes defendant and hereby requests that this Honorable Court allow defendant to withdraw his notice of insanity defense, without prejudice.

As reason therefor, defendant states that he has been advised by his standby counsel, Miriam Courod, that he should first get an independent evaluation regarding his insanity defense from a non-government psychiatrist before he submits to an evaluation by a government psychiatrist. Defendant is submitting an ex parte request for funds for such an independent evaluation.
